AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE AGE FOR THE PROSECUTION OF JUVENILES .

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intention of the General Court to amend the General Laws to provide that anyone charged
2 with a criminal violation of a General Law, subsequent to attaining the age of fourteen years, shall be prosecuted as 3 an adult. It is further the intention of the General Court to exempt individuals who have not yet attained the age of 4 twenty-one years from any mandatory sentence imposed for violating a General Law, but to allow the court
5 discretion to sentence said individuals to any fine or any term of years up to and including the maximum 6 incarceration term otherwise allowable for that violation.
- 7 SECTION 2. Section 52 of chapter 119 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is hereby 8 amended, in line 5, by striking out the word “seventeen” and inserting the word:— fourteen.
- 9 SECTION 3. Section 54 of chapter 119, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 2, the word 10 “seventeen” and inserting in place thereof the following word:— fourteen.
- 11 SECTION 4. Chapter 263 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the 12 following section:—
13 Section 10. All mandatory sentencing provisions for incarceration contained in the General Laws, including but not 14 limited to, sections twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-four G, and twenty-four L of chapter ninety, sections thirty-
15 two through thirty-two E, inclusive, of chapter ninety-four C, sections fifteen A, fifteen B, seventeen, eighteen,
16 eighteen A, and nineteen of chapter two hundred sixty-five, sections twenty-five and twenty-eight of chapter two 17 hundred sixty-six, and section ten of chapter two hundred sixty-nine, shall not apply to any individual who has not 18 yet attained the age of twenty-one years. The court shall have the discretion to sentence those individuals not yet 19 attaining the age of twenty-one years to any fine or any term of years up to and including the maximum 20 incarceration time otherwise allowable for that violation.
