7 provider; housekeeper, janitor, food service aide, transportation aide, security officer and other ancillary personnel.

8 SECTION 2. Amend Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 32 — Civil Service, by adding new sections:—
9 Section 94C. Disability or death caused by AIDS or HIV infection; first responder in public employ; presumption.
10 Section 94C(1). Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary, any condition of AIDS
11 or HIV infection resulting in disability or death to a first responder employed by any state, county or local entity
12 shall, if he or she consented to a baseline collection for HIV serologic testing which tests negative for HIV, but 13 subsequent collection tests positive for HIV, be presumed to have been suffered in the course of his or her
14 employment. The provision of this section shall apply only if the disabling or fatal condition is a type which may, in 15 general, result from exposure to known or suspected bloodborne pathogens as determined by the Federal Center for 16 Disease Control (CDC).

17 (2) Nothing herein shall preclude a first responder from applying for and receiving benefits under any other
18 provisions of the General Laws related to work-incurred injuries and diseases.
19 Section 94D. Extension of benefits for first responders suffering from work related infection of AIDS, or HIV. A
20 first responder employed by state, county or local entity who is determined to be infected with AIDS or HIV shall 21 have the right to continue to work as long as his or her attending physician believes there is no danger to the first 22 responder to his or her patient, with no loss in salary, seniority status, grade or benefits, including, but not limited to 23 health insurance. Nor shall there be any discrimination by the employer against the employee.
24 Section 94E. Supplementary Employer Payments for Certain Workers. When a first responder employed by state,
25 county or local entity has been found to be disabled due to personal injuries, as a result of HIV infection arising out

26 of his employment, as determined in Section 94C(1) of this Chapter, the employer shall supplement any workers
27 compensation established under this chapter by an amount equal to the difference between this amount and the 28 worker's average weekly salary.
29 Section 94F. Special Disability Insurance. Each employer in Massachusetts shall provide a minimum of $100,000 of 30 special disability insurance to any first responder in his employ who is found to be HIV infected from a work-related
31 exposure. All policies regarding the establishment of diagnosis of HIV infection shall follow the Standards on Blood
32 Borne Pathogens of the federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) as published on December 33 2, 1991.

34 Section 94G. Special life insurance for HIV-infected workers. Each employer of a first responder in Massachusetts
35 found to be infected by HIV as a result of a work-related exposure as determined by the Standard of Blood Borne
36 Pathogens of the federal Occupational Safety and Health Administration shall provide him or her with a life
37 insurance policy equal to twice the worker's most recent annual salary and to include so-called reverse-life
38 provisions when available.
