AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE PUNISHMENT OF HABITUAL OFFENDERS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 133B of chapter 27 of the General Laws is hereby repealed.

2

4           SECTION 2. Section 25 of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official 5           Edition, is hereby amended by striking section 25 in its entirety and inserting in place there of the 6           following section:-

8           Section 25. (a) Whoever has been twice convicted of crime and sentenced and committed to 9           prison in this or another state or by the Federal government, or once in this and once or more in 10          another state or by the Federal government, for terms of not less than three years each, and does 11          not show that he has been pardoned for either crime on the ground that he was innocent, shall, 12          upon conviction of a felony, be considered an habitual criminal and be punished by 13          imprisonment in the state prison for the maximum term provided by law as a penalty for the 14          felony for which he is then to be sentenced.

16 (b) Whoever has been twice convicted in the Superior Court of a felony, and does not show that 17 he has been pardoned for either crime on the ground that he was innocent, shall, upon conviction 18 in the Superior Court of a felony, be considered an habitual criminal and be punished by 19 imprisonment in the state prison for the maximum term provided by law as a penalty for the 20 felony for which he is then to be sentenced.

22 (c) Whoever has been twice convicted of a felony punishable by more than ten years in the state 23 prison, and does not show that he has been pardoned for either crime on the ground that he was 24 innocent, shall, upon conviction of any felony, either in the Boston Municipal Court, District
25 Court, or Superior Court be considered an habitual criminal and be punished by imprisonment 26 for the maximum term provided by law as a penalty for the felony for which he is then to be 27 sentenced.

28

29 (d) A prosecution commenced under this section shall not be continued without a finding or 30 placed on file and all offenders sentenced under this section shall be ineligible for probation, 31 parole, work release or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct.

32

33 (e) In any prosecution commenced pursuant to this section, introduction into evidence of a prior 34 conviction by either certified attested copies of original court papers, or certified attested copies 35 of the defendant's biographical and informational data from records of the department of 36 probation, any jail or house of correction or the department of correction showing that defendant
37 served a sentence or probationary term for the offense in question, shall be prima facie evidence 38 that the defendant before the court has been convicted previously by a court of the 39 commonwealth or any other jurisdiction. Such documentation shall be self-authenticating and 40 admissible, after the commonwealth has established the defendant's guilt on the primary offense, 41 as evidence in any court of the commonwealth to prove the defendant's commission of any prior 42 conviction described therein. The commonwealth shall not be required to introduce any 43 additional corroborating evidence or live witness testimony to establish the validity of such prior 44 conviction.

45 SECTION 3. Section 1 of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006
46 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting in the second paragraph after the first 47 sentence the following new sentence:-

48 A probationer whose sentence has been suspended shall be revoked and committed on the 49 suspended sentence where it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that the 50 probationer committed a felony while on probation.

51

52 SECTION 4. Section 1A of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official 53 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, after the first paragraph, the following new paragraph:-

54 A probationer whose sentence has been suspended shall be revoked and committed on the 55 suspended sentence where it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that the 56 probationer committed a felony while on probation.

57

58 SECTION 5. Section 3 of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006
59 Official Edition, is hereby amended in the first paragraph by striking the words “If such 60 suspension is revoked, the sentence shall be in full force and effect.” and inserting in place 61 thereof the following:- If such suspension is revoked, the sentence shall be in full force and 62 effect, and such suspension must be revoked where it is established by a preponderance of 63 the evidence that the probationer committed a felony while on probation. The pendency of a 64 criminal action on a charge which also constitutes an alleged violation of probation shall not 65 be grounds for a continuance of the probation violation hearing and such probation violation 66 hearing shall be conducted promptly.

68 SECTION 6. Chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is 69 hereby amended by striking out section 8B in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the 70 following section:-

72 Section 8B. If a defendant on release subject to the provisions of sections 42A, 58, 58A, or 73 87 of chapter 276 or any other statute that allows the court to set conditions of release during 74 the pendency of a criminal case, commits a crime, the sentences ultimately imposed on the 75 pending crime and the new crime shall run consecutively to each other, without regard to the 76 order or sequence in which those cases are adjudicated.
