AN ACT ENHANCING PUBLIC SAFETY BY ESTABLISHING A CRIMINAL OFFENDER DATABASE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 167 of chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004 Official
2 Edition, is amended by adding the following text after the word “incarceration” in line 28: —
3 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, conviction information as well as custody status
4 records, including information as to placement within the correctional system, shall be a public
5 record available to the public for any purpose, to be accessible on the Internet in accordance with 6 section 182 of this chapter, provided the following: (a) that conviction information shall also be 7 available by writing to the board; (b) that no information shall be disclosed that identifies 8 families members, friends, medical or psychological history, or any other personal information 9 unless such information is directly relevant to such release or custody placement decision; and 10 (c) that no information shall be provided if its release would violate any other state or federal 11 law.

13 SECTION 2. Said section 167 of said chapter 6 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 14 further amended by adding the following new definition: — “Conviction information” shall 15 mean criminal offender record information, which has not been sealed or purged, and which 16 discloses that a person has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to, or was convicted of any criminal 17 offense, and the information as to the individual’s current status within the criminal justice
18 system, including, but not limited to, information as to whether the individual has been released
19 from custody due to service of sentence, parole or probation, or if incarcerated, the individual’s
20 placement within the correctional system. Cases ending in the disposition of continued without a 21 finding shall not be considered a conviction.

22

23 SECTION 3. Section 168 of said chapter 6 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 24 amended by adding the following paragraph after the fourth paragraph: — The board shall 25 establish and maintain a criminal offender database, so-called, that shall be accessible to the 26 public on the internet. Said database shall consist of conviction information, and be searchable, 27 at a minimum, by name, town and offense. The database shall also consist of information as to 28 whether the offender is currently released from custody, on parole or probation, or if the offender
29 is incarcerated, his or her placement within the correctional system.

30
31 SECTION 4. Section 168A of said chapter 6 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 32 amended by striking out the second paragraph in its entirety.

33
34 SECTION 5. Section 172 of said chapter 6 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 35 amended by adding the following words after the word “information” in line 3: — with the 36 exception of conviction information, which shall be a public record,

37
38 SECTION 6. Said section 172 of said chapter 6 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 39 further amended by adding the following words after the word “information” in line 57: — with 40 the exception of conviction information, which shall be a public record,

41
42 SECTION 7. Said section 172 of said chapter 6 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 43 further amended by striking out the seventh paragraph, contained in lines 97 through 112, in its 44 entirety, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraphs: —

45 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, conviction information shall be public record to be 46 accessible to the general public on the internet, in accordance with section 168 of this chapter 47 provided the following: (a) that conviction information shall also be available by writing to the 48 board; (b) that no information shall be disclosed that identifies families members, friends, 49 medical or psychological history, or any other personal information unless such information is 50 directly relevant to such release or custody placement decision; and (c) that no information shall 51 be provided if its release would violate any other state or federal law.

52 The parole board, except as required by section 130 of chapter 127, the department of 53 correction, a county correctional authority, or probation department with the approval of a justice
54 to the appropriate division of the trial court, may, in its discretion, make available a summary, 55 which may include references to evaluative information, concerning a decision to release an 56 individual on a permanent or temporary basis, to deny such release, or to change his custody 57 status.

59 SECTION 8. Section 173 of said chapter 6 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 60 amended by adding the following words after the word “information” in line 2: — with the
