RESOLVE RELATIVE TO TEACHER LICENSURE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a special commission
2 to study and report on ways to improve the teacher licensure process. The commission shall 3 consist of the commissioner of education; 3 members of the house of representatives, 2 of 4 whom shall to be appointed by the speaker of the house, and 1 of whom shall be appointed by 5 the minority leader of the house; 3 members of the senate, 2 of whom shall be appointed by 6 the senate president, and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the senate minority leader; the 7 chancellor of higher education; a representative of the Massachusetts Teacher Association; and 8 a member appointed by the governor. The scope of the commission shall include, but shall not 9 be limited to: researching the current process of teacher licensure and ways to streamline the 10 process of certifying qualified applicants; analyzing the effectiveness, clarity and accessibility of 11 applications and certification via email and the internet; examining the feasibility of 12 streamlining the application process for teachers who have previous extensive experience in a 13 public or a private school system; evaluating possible options to simplify or lessen current state 14 teacher licensure regulations; and examining the capacity of the department to process all 15 teacher applications and certifications in a timely manner. The commission shall submit its 16 report to the board of education, the joint committee on education, and the senate and house 17 clerks no later than six months after the passage of this act.
