

HOUSE No.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PRESENTED BY:

John D. Keenan (BY REQUEST)

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in General Court assembled:

The undersigned legislators and/or citizens respectfully petition for the passage of the accompanying bill:

An Act Relative to the Duties of Judges.

PETITION OF:

NAME:	DISTRICT/ADDRESS:
Stefano Picciotto	418 Lafayette Street Salem, MA 01970
Melita Picciotto	418 Lafayette Street Salem, MA 01970

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DUTIES OF JUDGES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19

SECTION 1. Chapter 220 § 2, is amended by adding the following new paragraphs as SECTION 2A.:

2A. A JUDGE SHALL PERFORM THE DUTIES OF JUDICIAL OFFICE IMPARTIALLY AND DILIGENTLY

A. The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all the judge's other activities. The judge's judicial duties include all the duties of the judge's office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply.

B. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge shall hear and decide matters assigned to the judge except those in which the judge is disqualified.

(2) A judge shall be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. A judge shall not be swayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

20

21 (3) A judge shall maintain order and decorum in proceedings before the judge.

22

23 (4) A judge shall be patient and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others
24 with whom the judge deals in an official capacity, and shall require similar conduct of court
25 personnel and others.

26

27 (5) A judge shall perform judicial duties without bias or prejudice. A judge shall not, in the 28 performance of judicial duties, by words or conduct, manifest bias or prejudice, including but 29 not limited to bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, ethnicity,
30 disability, age, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status, and shall require court personnel
31 and others not to do so.

32

33 (6) A judge shall require lawyers in proceedings before the judge to refrain from manifesting, by 34 words or conduct, bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, ethnicity,
35 disability, age, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status, against parties, witnesses, counsel,
36 or others.

37

38 (a) A judge shall not allow attorneys to pass candies, gifts or memorabilia of any kind to 39 jurors.

40

41 (b) A judge shall not allow jurors to come to court dressed in Halloween costumes or similar 42 inappropriate attire.

43

44 (c) A judge shall not allow a cast list to be passed to jurors as to who will play them in a 45 movie.

46

47 (d) A judge shall not openly joke in court that Hollywood might make a movie of the case.

48

49 (7) A judge shall accord to every person who has a legal interest in a proceeding, or that 50 person's lawyer, the right to be heard according to law. A judge shall not initiate, permit, or 51 consider any ex parte communication concerning a pending or impending proceeding, except 52 that:

53

54 (a) Where circumstances require, an ex parte communication is authorized when it does not 55 deal

56 with substantive matters and is for scheduling or administrative purposes or emergencies
57 provided:

58 (i) the judge reasonably believes that no party will gain a procedural or tactical advantage
59 as a result of the ex parte communication, and

60

61 (ii) the judge makes provision promptly to notify all other parties of the substance of the ex
62 parte communication and allows them an opportunity to respond.

63 (b) A judge may consult with court personnel whose function is to aid the judge in carrying out
64 the judge's adjudicative responsibilities, or with other judges, subject to the following:

65

66 (i) a judge shall take all reasonable steps to avoid receiving from court personnel or other
67 judges factual information concerning a case that is not part of the case record. If court 68 personnel or another judge nevertheless bring non-record information about a case to the 69 judge's attention, the judge may not base a decision on it without giving the parties notice of 70 that information and a reasonable opportunity to respond. Consultation is permitted between a
71 judge, clerk-magistrate or other appropriate court personnel and a judge taking over the same
72 case or session in which the case is pending with regard to information learned from prior 73 proceedings in the case that may assist in maintaining continuity in handling the case;

74

75 (ii) when a judge consults with a probation officer about a party in a pending or impending
76 criminal or juvenile case, the consultation shall take place in the presence of the parties who 77 have availed themselves of the opportunity to appear and respond;

78

79 (iii) a judge shall not consult with an appellate judge, or a judge in a different trial court
80 department, about a case that the judge being consulted might review on appeal; and

81

82 (iv) no judge shall consult with another judge about a case pending before one of them when 83 the judge initiating the consultation knows the other judge has a financial, personal or other 84 interest which would preclude the other judge from hearing the case, and no judge shall 85 engage in such a consultation when the judge knows he or she has such an interest.

86

87 (b) A judge may, with the consent of the parties, confer separately with the parties and their 88 lawyers

89 in an effort to mediate or settle civil matters pending before the judge.

90

91 (c) A judge may initiate, permit, or consider any ex parte communication when authorized by 92 law

93 to do so.

94

95 (8) A judge shall dispose of all judicial matters promptly, efficiently, and fairly.

96

97 (9) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a judge shall abstain from public comment
98 about a pending or impending Massachusetts proceeding in any court, and shall require similar 99 abstention on the part of court personnel.

100

101 (a) A judge is permitted to make public statements in the course of his or her official duties or 102 to explain for public information the procedures of the court, general legal principles, or what 103 may be learned from the public record in a case.

104

105 (b) This Section does not prohibit judges from discussing, in legal education programs and 106 materials, cases and issues pending in appellate courts. This education exemption does not 107 apply, however, to comments or discussions that might interfere with a fair hearing of the case.

108

109 (c) This Section does not apply to proceedings in which the judge is a litigant in a personal 110 capacity.

111

112 (10) A judge shall not commend or criticize jurors for their verdict other than in a court order or 113 opinion in a proceeding, but may express appreciation to jurors for their service to the judicial 114 system and the community.

115

116 (11) A judge shall not disclose or use, for any purpose unrelated to judicial duties, information
117 acquired in a judicial capacity that by law is not available to the public. When a judge, in a 118 judicial capacity, acquires information, including material contained in the public record that is 119 not yet generally known, the judge must not use the information in financial dealings for 120 private gain. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3B(9), a judge shall not disclose or use,
121 for any purpose unrelated to judicial duties, information that, although part of the public 122 record, is not yet generally known, if such information would be expected unnecessarily to 123 embarrass or otherwise harm any person participating or mentioned in court proceedings.

124

125 C. Administrative Responsibilities.

126

127 (1) A judge shall diligently discharge the judge's administrative responsibilities without bias or 128 prejudice, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and cooperate with 129 other judges and court personnel.

130

131 (2) A judge shall require court personnel, including personnel who are directly involved in 132 courtroom proceedings over which the judge presides, to observe the standards of fidelity and 133 diligence that apply to the judge.

134 (3) A judge with supervisory authority for the judicial performance of other judges shall take 135 reasonable measures to assure the prompt disposition of matters before them and the proper 136 performance of their other judicial responsibilities.

137

138 (4) A judge shall not make unnecessary appointments of counsel and staff. The judge shall 139 exercise the power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding appointments based on 140 nepotism or personal or political favoritism. The judge shall not approve compensation of 141 appointees beyond the fair value of service rendered.

142

143 D. Disciplinary Responsibilities.

144

145 (1) A judge having knowledge of facts indicating a substantial likelihood that another judge has 146 committed a violation of the Code that raises a significant question about that judge's honesty,
147 integrity, trustworthiness, or fitness for judicial office shall inform the Chief Justice of this court
148 and of that judge's court. A judge having knowledge of facts indicating a substantial likelihood 149 that another judge has committed a violation of the Code that does not raise a significant 150 question of that judge's honesty, integrity, trustworthiness, or fitness for judicial office shall 151 take appropriate action.

152

153 (2) A judge having knowledge of facts indicating a substantial likelihood that a lawyer has 154 committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct that raises a significant question as 155 to that lawyer's honesty, integrity, trustworthiness, or fitness as a lawyer shall inform the Bar
156 Counsel's office of the Board of Bar Overseers.

157

158 E. Disqualification.

159

160 (1) A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality 161 might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

162

163 (a) the judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or a party's lawyer;

164

165 (b) the judge served as a lawyer in the matter in controversy;

166

167 (c) a lawyer with whom the judge previously practiced law served during such association as a 168 lawyer concerning the matter in controversy;

169

170 (d) the judge has been, or is to the judge's knowledge likely to be, a material witness concerning 171 the matter in controversy;

172

173 (e) the judge has personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the matter in 174 controversy;

175

176 (f) the judge is a party to the proceeding or an officer, director, or trustee of a party or the 177 judge knows, or reasonably should know, that he or she, individually or as a fiduciary, has (i) an
178 economic interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, which
179 interest could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding, (ii) a relationship
180 interest to a party to the proceeding where the party could be substantially affected by the 181 outcome of the proceeding or (iii) any other more than de minimis interest that could be 182 substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

183

184 (g) the judge knows, or reasonably should know, that the judge's spouse or child wherever 185 residing, or any other member of the judge's family residing in the judge's household, has (i) an
186 economic interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, which
187 interest could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding, (ii) a relationship
188 interest to a party to the proceeding where the party could be substantially affected by the 189 outcome of the proceeding or (iii) any other more than de minimis interest that could be 190 substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding; or

191

192 (h) the judge's spouse or domestic partner, as well as a person within the third degree of 193 relationship to the judge, the judge's spouse, or the judge's domestic partner, or a spouse or 194 domestic partner of such other person, (i) is a party to the proceeding or an officer, director, or 195 trustee of a party, (ii) is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding, (iii) is known by the judge to have 196 any more than de minimis interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the 197 proceeding, or (iv) is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

198

199 (i) Failure to adhere to the provisions of this section shall constitute a violation of due process.

200