The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE MASSACHUSETTS FOOD POLICY COUNCIL.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 20 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 6B the 2 following section:—
3 Section 6D. (a) There shall be established a Massachusetts food policy council, hereinafter 4 referred to as the council. The council shall consist of 23 members, 1 of whom shall be a member of the 5 house representatives who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; 1 of 6 whom shall be a member of the senate who shall be appointed by the president of the senate; 1 of 7 whom shall be a member of the house representatives who shall be appointed by the minority leader of 8 the house of representatives; 1 of whom shall be a member of the senate who shall be appointed by the 9 minority leader of the senate; 19 members to be appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall be the 10 secretary of the executive office of administration and finance, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be the 11 commissioner of the department of agricultural resources, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be the 12 commissioner of the department of public health, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be the commissioner 13 of the department of education, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be the commissioner of the 14 department of environmental protection, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be the commissioner of the 15 department of transitional assistance, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be the undersecretary of the 16 department of business development, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be the president of the 17 Massachusetts development finance agency, or his designee; 1 of whom shall be a representative of the 18 cooperative extension service at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst; 1 of whom shall be a 19 representative of commercial farming, fisheries and aquaculture; 1 of whom shall be a representative of 20 farmland preservation and conservation; 1 of whom shall be a representative of farmers' markets or 21 farm and food cooperatives; 1 of whom shall be a representative of the wholesale and retail food
22 businesses; 1 of whom shall be a representative of "buy local" initiatives and state or local procurement 23 programs with expertise in accessing locally grown and processed food products; 1 of whom shall be a 24 representative of food safety and public health protection; 1 of whom shall be a representative of food

25 banks, food pantries, and organizations and programs addressing nutritional health and hunger; 1 of 26 whom shall be a representative of an organization promoting development of new farm businesses, 27 urban and community supported agriculture, community gardening, immigrant and refugee farming, 28 and youth education through agriculture; and 2 of whom shall be individuals who own and manage 29 farms in the commonwealth.

30 (b) The purpose of the council shall be to develop a comprehensive food policy for the 31 commonwealth that shall, without limitation: enhance the economic viability of Massachusetts 32 agriculture; promote food security and the long-term sustainability of the commonwealth's food supply; 33 expand production and consumption of fresh, healthy, safe and locally produced foods; and improve the 34 nutritional health of the commonwealth's citizens. The council shall: (i) review existing state programs, 35 policies and regulations that affect the food system and recommend to the governor and the general 36 court means for improved coordination or implementation of such programs, policies or regulations to 37 achieve food policy objectives; and (ii) review any proposed legislation or regulations that will impact 38 the commonwealth's food system and make recommendations to the governor and the general court
39 regarding such legislation or regulations. The council may: (i) propose changes to existing state programs 40 or policies or propose new state programs or policies to help achieve food policy objectives; (ii)
41 undertake a review of existing federal programs, policies and regulations, or proposed federal legislation 42 or regulations; (iii) make recommendations to federal agencies or the commonwealth's congressional 43 delegation; (iv) solicit public input through public hearings or informational sessions; and (v) invite 44 additional stakeholder participation in subcommittees or working groups to address issues identified by 45 the council as requiring further study or particular expertise; and conduct research and analysis as 46 needed.

47 (c) The council shall submit an annual report of its findings, conclusions, proposals and 48 recommendations as provided in subsection (b) not later than December 31. The report shall be 49 submitted to the governor, the president of the senate, the speaker of the house, the chairs of the joint 50 committee on public health, the chairs of the joint committee on environment, natural resources and 51 agriculture, the clerk of the house of representative and the clerk of the senate.

52 (d) The council shall meet periodically, but not less than once annually. All meetings shall be 53 public.

54 (e) The council shall keep a public record of all meetings, votes and other business.

55 (f) Members of the council shall be appointed for terms of 3 years or until a successor is 56 appointed. Members shall be eligible to be reappointed and shall serve without compensation. A 57 chairman of the council shall be elected annually from the membership. The department shall provide 58 administrative support to the council as requested.

59 (g) In the event of a vacancy on the council, the original appointing authority shall, within 60 60 days of the occurrence of a vacancy, appoint a new member consistent with subsection (a) to fulfill the 61 remainder of the unexpired term.
