1 SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the Comprehensive Protection from Childhood
2 Sexual Abuse Act of 2009.

3

4 SECTION 2. Section 51A of Chapter 119 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by
5 Section 97 of Chapter 176 of the Acts of 2008, shall be amended by adding at the end of 6 subsection (k) the following new paragraph:-

7 All corporations and other institutions, which employ mandated reporters not professionally
8 licensed by the commonwealth, shall institute a program to implement the reporting

9 requirements of this section. Such program shall include, at a minimum, (i) the promulgation of a
10 written protocol to be followed when a 51A report is required; (ii) an education program for each

11 mandated reporter; and (iii) the posting, in a prominent public location, of the requirements of 12 this section and the penalties for non-compliance.

13

14 SECTION 3. Section 51A of Chapter 119 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by
15 Section 96 of Chapter 176 of the Acts of 2008, shall be amended by inserting, in the last sentence
16 of subsection (c), the words “a sexual assault or” before the words “ serious bodily injury.”

17

18 SECTION 4. Section 51A of Chapter 119 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by
19 Section 96 of Chapter 176 of the Acts of 2008, shall be amended by adding at the end of 20 subsection (c) the following sentence:-

21 Any corporation or other institution which employs a mandated reporter who fails to make a
22 report required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred
23 thousand dollars. It shall be a defense to any prosecution under this section that the corporation
24 or other institution had complied with the requirements of subsection (k).

25

26 SECTION 5. Section 51A of Chapter 119 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by
27 Section 95 of Chapter 176 of the Acts of 2008, shall be amended by adding at the end of

29 A mandated reporter who has reasonable cause to believe that a person who is alleged to have
30 sexually abused a child in the past, presently represents a credible threat to a child under the age
31 of eighteen years in a child or youth serving organization, shall have the same obligation to make 32 oral and written reports of such threat to the appropriate law enforcement agency or official and 33 the department.

34

35 SECTION 6. Chapter 258C of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 2

36 (b), as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

37 (b) No compensation shall be paid under this chapter unless the claimant demonstrates that the 38 crime was reported to the police or other law enforcement authorities or to an agency or entity
39 obligated by law to report complaints of criminal misconduct to law enforcement authorities.

40 Except in the case where the division finds such report to have been delayed for good cause, such 41 report shall have been made within five days after the occurrence of such crime. In the case of a 42 claimant who was sexually abused as a minor, such good cause shall include the report of any 43 duly licensed mental health professional stating an opinion that the claimant did not make the 44 connection between the sexual abuse and the harm suffered as a result by the claimant at the time
45 the abuse occurred, and that claimant's failure to make the connection was consistent with the 46 typical responses by such victims of childhood sexual abuse.

47

48 SECTION 7. Chapter 258C of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 5 (a)

49 (1), as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section: -

50 (a) (1) A claim for compensation under this chapter shall be filed within three years of the date of 51 the crime. In the case of a claimant who was sexually abused as a minor, said three years shall 52 commence to run when the claimant first makes the connection between the sexual abuse and the 53 harm suffered as a result by the claimant. The report of any duly licensed mental health
54 professional stating an opinion as to the date when the claimant first made the connection
55 between the sexual abuse and the harm suffered by the claimant, and that the claimant's failure to

56 make the connection prior to that date was consistent with the typical responses by such victims
57 of childhood sexual abuse, shall be prima facie evidence in all proceedings under this chapter.

58

59 SECTION 8. Chapter 277 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the second and 60 third sentences of section 63, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following: -

61 An indictment or complaint for an offense set forth in section 13B, 13F, 13H, 13L, 22, 22A,
62 23 or 24B of chapter 265 or for conspiracy to commit any of these offenses, or an accessory
63 thereto, or any one or more of them, may be found and filed at any time after the commission of 64 such offense, provided that the victim was under the age of 18 when the offense was committed.

65

66 SECTION 9. Section 4C of Chapter 260 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004
67 Official Edition, shall be amended by striking out the first paragraph thereof as so appearing, and 68 inserting in place thereof the following: -

69 Any actions for assault and battery alleging the defendant sexually abused a minor, or for 70 negligence alleging that the defendant negligently supervised a third person who sexually abused
71 a minor, or that the defendant's conduct caused or contributed to the sexual abuse of a minor by a
72 third person, may be commenced at any time.

73

74 SECTION 10. Section 9 shall take effect six (6) months after passage, and shall have 75 prospective application only. As to all actions under Section 4C of Chapter 260 which are
76 pending on the effective date of section 9, and all such actions commenced under Section
77 4C within a two (2) year period after the effective date of section 9, it shall not be a defense that 78 such action is barred by any applicable statute of limitations.

79

80 SECTION 11. All actions under Section 4C of Chapter 260, in which the acts alleged occurred
81 prior to the effective date of Section 9, but which are commenced after the two year period set
82 forth in Section 10, shall be governed by the provisions of Section 4C of Chapter 260 as it was in 83 effect prior to the enactment of Section 9.

84

85 SECTION 12. Section 85K of Chapter 231 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004
86 Official Edition, shall be amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

87 Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the limitations on liability set forth in this
88 section shall not apply if the claim is for intentional or negligent conduct which caused or
89 contributed to the sexual abuse of a minor. For purposes of this section, "sexual abuse" shall be
90 defined as set forth in section 4C of chapter 260.

91

92 SECTION 13. Section 85W of Chapter 231 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 93 2004 Official Edition, shall be amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

94 Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the limitations on liability set forth in this
95 section shall not apply if the claim is for intentional or negligent conduct which caused or
96 contributed to the sexual abuse of a minor. For purposes of this section, "sexual abuse" shall be
97 defined as set forth in section 4C of chapter 260.

98

99 SECTION 14. The provisions of Sections 12 & 13 shall apply to all claims under Section
100 4C of Chapter 260 which have accrued, and to all actions which are pending, on the date upon 101 which it becomes effective.

102

103 SECTION 15. The provisions of Sections 12 & 13 shall be deemed to be retroactive to the 104 fullest extent permitted under the Constitution of the United States and the Declaration of Rights
105 of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

106

107 SECTION 16. Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of this bill shall become 108 effective upon passage.

109

110 SECTION 17. Each section of this Act shall be separable and shall continue in effect if any 111 provision hereof is deemed to be unconstitutional or otherwise ineffective.
