The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine
—————

AN ACT RELATIVE TO TAX EXEMPTIONS FOR VETERANS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1

2 SECTION 1. Section 5 of chapter 59, as appearing in the 2004 official edition, is hereby amended by inserting the
3 following after clause twenty-second E;

4

5 Twenty Second F, Real estate to the full amount of the taxable valuation of real property of for honorably
6 discharged veterans, as defined chapter 4, section 7, 43rd clause of the general laws. Said exemption shall be in effect
7 for the first five calendar years after discharge from the armed forces. Veterans qualifying under this clause must
8 have been domiciled in the commonwealth for at least 6 months before entering service or 5 consecutive years next
9 before the date for filing for exemption under this clause.

10

11 Said veteran shall only qualify for exemption under this clause once and no real estate tax exemption under this
12 clause shall be conveyed to said veteran in order to evade taxation;

13

14 Provided further, that the full amount of this exemption shall be borne by the commonwealth, and the state treasurer
15 shall annually reimburse the city or town for the amount of the tax which otherwise would have been collected for 16 this exemption.

18 Section 2.

19 Section 1 of chapter 60a of the general laws, as appearing in the 2004 official edition, is hereby amended by 20 inserting the following after paragraph seven;

21

22 The excise imposed by this section shall not apply to a motor vehicle owned and registered by an honorably
23 discharged veteran as defined by chapter 4, section 7, 43rd clause of the general laws. Said exemption shall be in 24 effect for the first five calendar years after discharge from the armed forces. Veterans qualifying under this clause
25 must have been domiciled in the commonwealth for at least 6 months before entering service or 5 consecutive years
26 next before the date for filing for exemption under this clause.
