The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT RELATIVE TO TAX EXEMPT PROPERTY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 5 of chapter 59 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 1996 Official Edition, is hereby amended
2 by adding the following paragraph:— Real property exempted from taxation by the provisions of this section shall 3 not be sold or converted to residential, industrial or commercial use while so exempted unless the city or town in 4 which such land is located has been notified of intent to sell for or convert to such other use. For a period of 120
5 days subsequent to such notification, said city or town shall have, in the case of an intended sale, a first refusal
6 option to meet a bona fide offer to purchase said land, or, in the case of an intended conversion not involving sale,
7 an option to purchase said land at full and fair market value to be determined by impartial appraisal. After a public 8 hearing, said city or town may assign either of said options to a nonprofit organization under such terms and 9 conditions as the mayor or board of selectmen deem appropriate. Notice of intent shall be sent by the real property 10 owner, or the property owner’s authorized agent, via certified mail to the mayor and city council of a city, or the 11 board of selectmen of a town, to its board of assessors and to its planning board, if any, and said option period shall 12 run from the day following the last date of deposit of any such of such notices in the United States mails. No sale or 13 conversion of such land shall be consummated unless and until either said option period shall have expired or the 14 property owner shall have been notified by written notice signed by the mayor or board of selectmen of said city or 15 town in question that said option will not be exercised. Such option may be exercised only by written notice signed 16 by the mayor or board of selectmen, mailed to the property owner by certified mail at such address as may be 17 specified in his notice of intention and recorded with the registry of deeds, within the option period. An affidavit by 18 a notary public that he has so mailed such a notice of intent on behalf of a landowner shall conclusively establish the 19 manner and time of the giving of such notice; and such an affidavit, and such a notice that the option will not be 20 exercised, shall be recorded with the registry of deeds. Each such notice of intention, notice of exercise of the option
21 and notice that the option will not be exercised shall contain the name of the record owner of the land and a 22 description of the premises so to be sold or converted adequate for identification thereof; and each such affidavit by 23 a notary public shall have attached to it a copy of the notice of intention to which it relates. Such notices of intention 24 shall be deemed to have been duly mailed to the parties above specified if addressed to them in care of the town or 25 city clerk; and in the case of notice to a city council or a board or commission, addressed to it as such entity. The

26 provisions of this section shall not be applicable with respect to a mortgage foreclosure sale; but the holder of a
27 mortgage shall, at least ninety days before a foreclosure sale, send written notice of the time and place of such sale
28 to the parties and in the manner above provided in this section for notice of intent to sell or convert, and the giving 29 of such notice may be established by an affidavit of a notary public as set forth above.
