[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 1691 OF 2007-2008.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine
—————

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DEFINITION OF A COMMON NUISANCE .

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 139 of the general laws, as appearing in the 2002 Official Edition is hereby amended by 2 adding at the end thereof the following sections:
3

4 Section 21. Every building, part of a building, tenement or place used for a residential or commercial
5 purpose, whether occupied or vacant, that is maintained and/or managed in such a manner so as to interfere with the 6 quiet enjoyment of the surrounding premises, public ways and public open spaces or not maintained and/or managed
7 in a manner that is substantially similar to the majority of the properties in the surrounding census tract or is 8 inconsistent with the use as permitted by local zoning by-law shall be deemed a nuisance.
9

10 Section 22. Whoever keeps or maintains such a nuisance shall be punished by a fine of not less than one
11 hundred nor more than one thousand dollars and by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than three 12 years.

14 Section 23. Whenever there is reason to believe that such a nuisance is kept or maintained or exists in any 15 town, either the district attorney for the district, or the attorney general, in the name of the commonwealth, or a 16 citizen in his own name, may bring a civil action perpetually to enjoin the person conducting or maintaining the 17 same, and the owner, lessee or agent of the building or place in or upon which such nuisance exists and their 18 assignees from directly or indirectly maintaining or permitting such nuisance.

20 Section 24. The complaint shall join the owner of record of the premises as a party defendant and shall be 21 filed in the superior court for the county where the nuisance is believed to exist, and shall be verified by oath of the 22 plaintiff unless filed by the attorney general or a district attorney. Such proceeding shall have precedence over all
23 other matters upon the docket except criminal proceedings, election contests and hearings upon actions for other 24 injunctions.

26 Section 25. If upon a hearing, after at least two days' notice to the respondents of the time and place assigned
27 therefor, the existence of such a nuisance is shown to the satisfaction of the court or justice, either through verified
28 complaint or through evidence in the form of affidavits, depositions, oral testimony or otherwise, a temporary

29 injunction shall be ordered to issue forthwith restraining the maintenance of the nuisance and enjoining the 30 occupants, owner and all other persons from removing fixtures, furniture, musical instruments and all other movable
31 property from the premises until further order of the court.
32

33 Section 26. If upon subsequent hearing the existence of the nuisance shall be established, the court shall 34 enter a decree permanently enjoining the maintenance thereof, including in such decree an order of abatement
35 directing the sheriff of the county or his deputy to enter the building or place where the nuisance existed and to sell
36 all furniture, musical instruments and movable property used in maintaining the nuisance, in the manner provided
37 for the sale of chattels under execution, and to remove the same. If it shall appear that the bill of complaint was filed
38 five or more days after notice to the record owner of the premises, and that he did not proceed forthwith to enforce 39 his rights under section nineteen, such order of abatement shall further direct the effectual closing of the building or 40 the place and the prohibition of its use for any purpose for one year, unless sooner released as provided in section
41 eleven. For the purpose of proving the existence of the nuisance the general reputation of the place shall be 42 admissible as evidence.

44 Section 27. For removing and selling the movable property in accordance with the decree of the court the 45 officer shall be entitled to the same fees as for levying upon and selling like property on execution, and for closing
46 the premises and keeping them closed, a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the court. The proceeds shall be 47 applied: first, to the fees and costs of removal and sale; second, to the allowances and costs of so closing and 48 keeping closed the premises; third, to the payment of the complainants' costs in such proceeding, including a
49 reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court; fourth, the remainder, if any, to the owner of the property sold.
50

51 Section 28. If the owner of any such premises shall pay all costs of the proceedings, and file with the court a 52 bond with sureties approved by the clerk in the full value of such premises as ascertained by the court, or, when the 53 court is not in session, by the clerk, payable to the court and conditioned that the owner of the premises found to be a
54 nuisance will immediately abate such nuisance and prevent the same from being established or kept therein within 55 one year thereafter, the court or justice may, if satisfied of the owner's good faith, order the premises so closed to be
56 delivered to such owner and the order of abatement to be so modified as to dissolve the order that the premises
57 remain closed for one year; provided, that such modification shall not release such premises from any judgment,
58 lien, penalty or liability to which it may be subject.
59

60 Section 29. No action commenced under section six shall be dismissed, except upon a sworn statement made
61 and filed by the plaintiff and by his attorney setting forth the reasons for dismissal thereof and upon approval of such 62 dismissal by the court in open court. If the court is of opinion that the action ought not to be dismissed he may direct
63 the district attorney to prosecute the case to judgment. If the action was brought by a citizen and the court finds that 64 there was no reasonable ground therefor, costs may be awarded against the plaintiff.
65

66 Section 30. All persons found in or upon premises used pursuant to the provisions of section 21 may be
67 required by a justice of a court of record to recognize, with or without sureties, to appear as witnesses at any hearing
68 in an action to punish a person for keeping or maintaining such a nuisance as is described in section four, or for 69 aiding in the maintenance of such a nuisance in the manner set forth in section twenty, or to enjoin or abate such a 70 nuisance, and a warrant may be issued to bring such persons before the justice to recognize as aforesaid.
