

HOUSE No.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

PRESENTED BY:

Angelo M. Scaccia

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in General Court assembled:

The undersigned legislators and/or citizens respectfully petition for the passage of the accompanying bill:

An Act relative to substantive changes to the Massachusetts Business Act.

PETITION OF:

NAME:

DISTRICT/ADDRESS:

14th Suffolk

William F. Galvin

Secretary of the Commonwealth

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT RELATIVE TO SUBSTANTIVE CHANGES TO THE MASSACHUSETTS BUSINESS ACT.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 () Section 1.40 of Chapter 156D is amended by adding at the end of subsection (a) the 2 following paragraph:

3 “Voting power” means the current power to vote in the election of directors.

4 () Section 2.02(b)(4) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

5 A provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation
6 or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director 7 notwithstanding any provision of law imposing such liability; but the provision shall not 8 eliminate or limit the liability of a director (i) for any breach of the director’s duty of 9 loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or 10 which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for improper 11 distributions under section 6.40, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director 12 derived an improper personal benefit.

13 () Section 7.07(c) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

14 A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders’ meeting 15 is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new 16 record date, which it shall do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days 17 after the record date fixed for the original meeting.

18 () Section 7.44(a) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

19 A derivative proceeding commenced after rejection of a demand shall be dismissed by

20 the court on motion by the corporation if the court finds that either: (1) 1 of the groups 21 specified in subsections (b)(1) and (2) or (f) has determined in good faith after conducting 22 a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions are based that the maintenance of the 23 derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation; or (2) shareholders 24 specified in subsection (b)(3) have determined that the maintenance of the derivative 25 proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation.

26 () Section 7.44(e) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

27 If a majority of the board of directors does not consist of independent directors at the time
28 the determination by independent directors is made, the corporation shall have the burden 29 of proving that the requirements of subsection (a) have been met and that the 30 determination that maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of 31 the corporation was reasonable and principled. If a majority of the board of directors 32 consists of independent directors at the time the determination is made or if the 33 determination is made by shareholders pursuant to clause (3) of subsection (b) or is made 34 pursuant to subsection (f), the plaintiff shall have the burden of proving that the 35 requirements of subsection (a) have not been met and, if the determination is made by a 36 group specified in clauses (1) or (2) of subsection (b), that the independent directors, in 37 making the determination, have not met the standard set forth in Section 8.30.

38 () Section 8.21(a) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

39 Unless the articles of organization or bylaws provide that action required or permitted by 40 this chapter to be taken by the directors may be taken only at a meeting, the action may 41 be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by the unanimous consent of the 42 members of the board of directors. The action must be evidenced by 1 or more consents 43 describing the action taken, in writing, signed by each director, or delivered to the 44 corporation by electronic transmission, to the address specified by the corporation for the 45 purpose or, if no address has been specified, to the principal office of the corporation, 46 addressed to the secretary or other officer or agent having custody of the records of 47 proceedings of directors for inclusion in the records of meetings.

48 () Section 9.52(6) of Chapter 156D is amended by deleting clause (1) thereof in its entirety and 49 replacing it with the following:

50 Would have a right to vote as a separate voting group on a provision in the plan that, if 51 contained in a proposed amendment to articles of organization, would require action by 52 separate voting groups under section 10.04; provided, however, that receipt of interests in 53 another entity in exchange for shares pursuant to a plan of conversion shall not entitle 54 holders of the exchanged class or series to vote as a separate voting group based solely on 55 the grounds that they were receiving interests in a different issuer; or 56 () Section 10.04(a) is amended by inserting at the beginning thereof the following:

57 Subject to section 10.05,

58 () Section 11.04(6) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

59 Except as otherwise expressly provided in the article of organization, voting by a class or 60 series of shares as a separate voting group is required on a plan of merger or share 61 exchange if the plan contains a provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to 62 articles of organization, would entitle such class or series to vote as a separate voting 63 group on the proposed amendment under section 10.04; provided however, that (i) receipt 64 of shares of a class or series of shares in exchange for shares pursuant to a plan of merger 65 or share exchange involving each outstanding class and series shall not entitle holders of 66 the exchanged class or series to vote as a separate voting group based solely on the 67 grounds that they are receiving shares of a different issuer or that clauses (1) or (5) of 68 section 10.04 would apply if the change were contained in a proposed amendment to the 69 articles of organization, and (ii) if the proposed provision would, as an amendment, 70 entitle two or more classes or series of shares to vote separately but would affect those 71 classes or series in the same or a substantially similar way, the shares of all such classes
72 or series shall, unless the articles of organization provide otherwise, vote together as a 73 single voting group on the plan.

74 () Section 13.01 of Chapter 156D is amended by deleting the paragraph beginning “Marketable 75 securities” in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

76 “Marketable securities”, securities held of record by, or by financial intermediaries or 77 depositories on behalf of, at least 1,000 persons and which were

78 (a) listed on a national securities exchange, or

79 (b) listed on a regional securities exchange or traded in an interdealer quotation 80 system or other trading system and had at least 250,000 outstanding shares, 81 exclusive of shares held by officers, directors and affiliates, which have a market 82 value of at least $5,000,000.

83 () Section 13.02(a)(1) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the 84 following:

85 (a) A shareholder is entitled to appraisal rights, and obtain payment of the fair value of 86 his shares in the event of, any of the following corporate or other actions:

87 (1) consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if 88 shareholder approval is required for the merger by section 11.04 or the articles of 89 organization or if the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent or 90 another subsidiary under section 11.05, unless, in either case, (A) all shareholders 91 are to receive only cash for their shares in amounts proportionate to what they 92 would receive upon a dissolution of the corporation or, in the case of shareholders 93 already holding marketable securities in the merging corporation, only marketable 94 securities of the surviving corporation, marketable securities of the parent in the 95 case of a merger with a subsidiary and/or cash and (B) no director, officer or 96 controlling shareholder has a direct or indirect material financial interest in the 97 merger other than (i) in his capacity as a shareholder of the corporation or as a

98 director, officer, employee or consultant of either the merging or the surviving 99 corporation or of any affiliate of the surviving corporation if his financial interest 100 is pursuant to bona fide arrangements with either corporation or any such affiliate, 101 or (ii) in any other capacity so long as the shareholder owns not more than five 102 percent of the voting shares of all classes and series of the corporation in the 103 aggregate;

104 () Section 13.02(a) of Chapter 156D is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

105 (9) consummation of a domestication if the shareholder would have had appraisal rights 106 if the transaction had been effected as a merger.

107 () Section 13.02(b) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

108 Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a) of section 13.03, in the event of corporate 109 action specified in clauses (1), (2), (3), (7), (8) or (9) of subsection (a), a shareholder may 110 assert appraisal rights only if he seeks them with respect to all of his shares of whatever 111 class or series.

112 () Section 16.20(c) of Chapter 156D is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

113 A corporation shall deliver the annual financial statements, or a written notice of their 114 availability, to each shareholder before the earlier to occur of the annual meeting of 115 shareholders or 120 days after the close of the fiscal year. Thereafter, the corporation 116 shall deliver its most recent annual financial statements upon the written request of any 117 shareholder to whom the statements were not delivered.
