In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT AFFECTING THE HOUSING OF PRISONERS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Whereas, citizens and legal residents sentenced to serve prison sentences in the Massachusetts 2 Correctional system have a right to be assigned to a site located within the borders of the commonwealth in order 3 or significant others might be allowed that parents, friends, visitation privileges; and 4 Whereas, visitations and family support play a major role in the rehabilitative process, denial of which 5 constitutes added punishment not ordered by the sentencing judge nor included as a part of the original sentence; 6 and 7 Whereas, the housing of inmates in distant locations, outside the boundaries of the commonwealth, denies 8 family members of the inmates and the general public the privilege of reasonable visitation. The total time and cost 9 associated with travel required for such visitations constitute a denial of the rights of family members and the 10 concerned public: and 11 Whereas, transporting and housing Massachusetts prisoners out-of-state to distant locations constitutes cruel 12 and unusual punishment, a type of inhumanity treatment reminiscent of a slavery-like experience, therefore it is 13 hereby resolved that citizens and legal residents of the commonwealth who are ordered by the court to serve a period 14 of incarceration shall serve such incarceration as ordered in a correctional facility which is physically located within 15 the boundaries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, exceptions shall be made only in the case an inmate has 16 requested, through proper channels, a transfer to another state's jurisdiction and/or the Department of Corrections 17 would have deemed a transfer to be in the interest of an inmate's personal safety. 18 SECTION 2. Notwithstanding any act to the contrary, the act shall require all citizens and legal residents of 19 the commonwealth who are sentenced by a court to incarceration in the Massachusetts Department of Corrections, to serve such incarceration in a facility which is physically located within the boundaries of the commonwealth, unless an inmate shall have personally requested a transfer out of state, and/or the inmate's personal safety is at risk as set forth in Section 1.
