The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT CREATING A SPECIAL COMMISSION ON BEHAVIOR MODIFICATION.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. There shall be a special commission to investigate and make legislative 2 recommendations on the adequacy and effectiveness of laws and regulations governing the use of 3 behavior modification techniques, including aversive procedures and the principles of applied behavior
4 analysis across all public or private agencies in the commonwealth receiving public funding or subsidy
5 through the commonwealth, any of its political subdivisions, or another state or political subdivision, 6 thereof.

7 SECTION 2. The investigation shall include, but not be limited to, the scope of techniques permissible 8 under current statutes and regulations, the existent classification system of behavioral interventions, the 9 format and content of behavioral plans, the policies and procedures governing the development, review, 10 approval, implementation and monitoring of aversive interventions, and the adequacy of procedural 11 safeguards to ensure the health, safety, privacy, dignity and human rights of individuals with behavior 12 plans in place.

13 SECTION 3. The commission shall also review and evaluate the status and appropriateness of a sample 14 of current behavioral plans within state agencies as well as contracted providers.

15 SECTION 4. The commission shall develop and recommend a unified set of standards regarding the use 16 of behavior modification procedures in all agencies and programs licensed, funded and/or regulated by 17 the Commonwealth. These standards shall include, the minimum qualifications for staff who are involved 18 in the development and direct implementation of aversive procedures and the review and monitoring 19 requirements for such interventions.

20 SECTION 5. The commission shall consist of the Governor or designee, the Senate President or 21 designee, the Speaker of the House or designee, the Senate and House Chairs of the Joint Committee on 22 Children and Families, the Chief Justice of the Probate and Family Court or designee, the Commissioner 23 of the Department of Developmental Services or designee, the Commissioner of the Department of 24 Mental Health or designee, the Commissioner of the Department of Early Education and Care or 25 designee, the Commissioner of the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education or designee, the 26 Commissioner of the Department of Children and Families or designee, the Commissioner of the 27 Department of Youth Services or designee, the Executive Director of the Disabled Persons Protection 28 Commission, or designee, the Chairman of the Governor's Commission on Mental Retardation or 29 designee, the Executive Director of the Massachusetts Psychological Association or designee, and a 30 Licensed Applied Behavior Analyst or Certified Behavior Analyst to be appointed by the governor. The 31 governor will also appoint Commission at least one disability advocate and one service provider whose 32 agency conducts behavioral intervention programming.

33 SECTION 6. The commission may hold public hearings and site visits to assist in the collection and 34 evaluation of data and testimony from providers, family members, and the general public.

35 SECTION 7. The special commission shall be appointed no later July 1, 2009 and shall file a report of 36 the results of its investigation and recommendations with the clerks of the senate and house of 37 representatives on or before January 1, 2010.
