To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in General Court assembled:

The undersigned legislators and/or citizens respectfully petition for the passage of the accompanying bill:

An Act Extending the Investment Tax Credit to All Corporations.

PETITION OF:

NAME:

Brian A. Joyce

DISTRICT/ADDRESS:

Norfolk, Bristol and Plymouth

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT EXTENDING THE INVESTMENT TAX CREDIT TO ALL CORPORATIONS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 63 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended by deleting section 31A and replacing it with the following new section:-

3 Section 31A. (a) A business corporation shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided 4 against its excise due under this chapter. The amount of such credit shall be three per cent of the 5 cost or other basis for federal income tax purposes of qualifying tangible property acquired, 6 constructed, reconstructed, or erected during the taxable year, after deduction therefrom of any 7 federally authorized tax credit taken with respect to such property. Qualifying property shall be 8 tangible personal property and other tangible property including buildings and structural 9 components of buildings acquired by purchase, as defined under section one hundred and 10 seventy-nine (d) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code as amended and in effect for the taxable
11 year is not taxable under chapter sixty A; used by the corporation in the commonwealth; situated 12 in the commonwealth on the last day of the taxable year; and which (1) is depreciable under 13 section one hundred and sixty-seven of said Code and has a useful life of four years or more, or 14 (2) is considered recovery property under section one hundred and sixty-eight of said Code.

15 A business corporation shall be allowed a credit against its excise due under this chapter for 16 tangible personal property leased pursuant to an operating lease as hereinafter provided. The 17 amount of such credit afforded to a lessee corporation with respect to such tangible personal 18 property shall be three percent of the lessor's adjusted basis in the property for federal income tax 19 purposes at the beginning of the lease term, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which 20 shall be the number of days of the taxable year during which the lessee corporation leases the 21 tangible personal property and the denominator of which shall be the number of days in the 22 useful life of such property. Such useful life shall be the same as that used by the lessor for 23 depreciation purposes when computing federal income tax liability. An operating lease shall be 24 any contract or agreement to lease or rent or for a license to use such property provided that (i)

25 said lease does not constitute a purchase as defined under section one hundred and seventy-nine
26 (d) of the Code, as amended and in effect for the taxable year, (ii) such property is not taxable
27 under chapter sixty A, (iii) such property is used by the lessee corporation in the commonwealth, 28 (iv) such property is situated in the commonwealth throughout the entire lease term, and (v) such 29 property (1) is depreciable by the lessor under section one hundred and sixty-seven of said Code
30 and has a useful life of four years or more, or (2) is considered recovery property under section
31 one hundred sixty-eight of said Code. Such credit shall not be available to a lessee if such lessor 32 has previously received a credit with respect to the leased tangible personal property. The 33 commissioner shall by regulation require such documentation of the lessor and lessee as to 34 substantiate the credit claimed by this section.

35 (b) A corporation shall not be allowed a credit under paragraph (a) with respect to tangible 36 personal property and other tangible property, including buildings and structural components of 37 buildings, which it leases as a lessor. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, any contract or 38 agreement to lease or rent or for a license to use such property shall be considered a lease.

39 (c) The credit allowed under this section for any taxable year shall not reduce the excise to less 40 than the amount due under section thirty-two (b) or sixty-seven and under any act in addition 41 thereto.

42 (d) A corporation may elect to deduct the amount allowable under section thirty-eight D or the 43 credit under this section, but not both. Any such election must be made on or before the due date 44 of filing the return, including any extension of time and shall be irrevocable.

45 (e) With respect to property which is disposed of or ceases to be in qualified use prior to the end
46 of the taxable year in which the credit is to be taken, the amount of the credit shall be that portion 47 of the credit provided for in paragraph (a) which represents the ratio which the months of 48 qualified use bear to the months of useful life. If property on which credit has been taken is 49 disposed of or ceases to be in qualified use prior to the end of its useful life, the difference 50 between the credit taken and the credit allowed for actual use must be added back as additional 51 taxes due in the year of disposition; provided, however, if such property is disposed of or ceases
52 to be in qualified use after it has been in qualified use for more than twelve consecutive years, it
53 shall not be necessary to add back the credit, as provided in this paragraph. The amount of credit 54 allowed for actual use shall be determined by multiplying the original credit by the ratio which 55 the months of qualified use bear to the months of useful life. For the purposes of this paragraph,
56 useful life of property shall be the same as that used by the corporation for depreciation purposes
57 when computing federal income tax liability.

58 (f) A corporation renting or leasing tangible property otherwise qualifying for the credit under 59 this section from a regional business development corporation or authority authorized under 60 chapter forty D or a regional business development corporation organized as a non-profit 61 corporation under any special act shall be deemed to have acquired such property by purchase as 62 defined under Sec. 179(d) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code, as amended and in effect for the 63 taxable year, for the purposes of this section and shall be eligible for the credit under paragraph
64 (a). The amount of such credit shall be three per cent of the value of qualifying property leased
65 and placed in qualified use during the taxable year. Such value shall be the cost of such property

66 to the regional business development corporation and the books and records of such corporation 67 shall for the purposes of this section be open to the commissioner for inspection. For the 68 purposes of this section, a termination or cessation of such rental or lease for any reason other 69 than a transfer of ownership of such property to the lessee shall be considered a disposition of 70 such property. No further credit shall be allowed to such lessee or any successor corporation, as 71 the case may be, on account of such property in the event of successive rentals or leases, 72 replacement, alteration or change of the property rented or leased; transfer of ownership of such 73 property to the lessee; or the merger, consolidation or other reorganization of such lessee.

74 (g) Any corporation entitled to a credit for any taxable year in accordance with the provisions of 75 paragraphs (a) to (f), inclusive, may carry over and apply to its excise for any one or more of the 76 next succeeding three taxable years, the portion, as reduced from year to year, of its credit which 77 exceeds its excise for the taxable year.

78 (h) Any corporation entitled to a credit for any taxable year under this section shall apply it only 79 to its excise for any of the eligible taxable years.

80 SECTION 2. Chapter 63 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by 81 deleting Section 38U as most recently amended by Chapter 130 of the Acts of 2008.
