2 Chapter 231 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following new section:

4 rendering of professional services against a provider of health care, the liability of each
5 defendant for damages shall be several only and shall not be joint. Each defendant shall be liable 6 only for the amount of damages allocated to that defendant in direct proportion to that 7 defendant's percentage of fault, and a separate judgment shall be rendered against that defendant 8 for that amount.

9 SECTION 2.

10 Chapter 231, Section 60G of the Massachusetts General Laws as appearing in the 2006 Official 13 word "was" in line 11.

14 SECTION 3.

15 Section 60B of Chapter 231 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking the fifth 16 paragraph in its entirety and replacing it with the following text:

17 "Each such action for malpractice shall be heard by said tribunal within fifteen days after the 18 defendant's answer has been filed. Substantial evidence shall mean such evidence as a reasonable 19 person might accept as adequate to support a conclusion. Admissible evidence shall include, but 20 not be limited to, hospital and medical records, nurses' notes, x-rays and other records kept in the 21 usual course of the practice of the health care provider without the necessity for other 22 identification or authentication, statements of fact or opinion on a subject contained in a 29 by said experts shall be admissible at trial and said experts shall be required to testify at trial.

30 The tribunal may upon the application of either party or upon its own decision summon or 31 subpoena any such records or individuals to substantiate or clarify any evidence which has been

32 presented before it and may appoint an impartial and qualified physician or surgeon or other 33 related professional person or expert to conduct any necessary professional or expert 34 examination of the claimant or relevant evidentiary matter and to report or to testify as a witness 35 thereto. Such a witness shall be allowed traveling expenses and a reasonable fee to be fixed by 36 the tribunal which shall be assessed as costs. The testimony of said witness and the decision of 37 the tribunal shall be admissible as evidence at a trial.”
