The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Nine

AN ACT RELATIVE TO A MODIFIED JUDICIAL MERIT-RETENTION SYSTEM.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. A modified judicial merit-retention system shall be established in such a manner so 2 as to each year conduct a referendum survey wherein each individual who has accepted in a
3 District Court or Superior Court courtroom wherein judicial proceedings have transpired may 4 participate in a survey wherein he or she may offer to the administrating agency a written system
5 and signed statement of reasons as to why any given judge should not hold office.
- 6 That any survey shall be written on forms supplied by the administrating agency and shall set
7 forth that the participant has personal knowledge of the Code of Judicial Ethics and has no bias 8 as standards in setting forth the above mentioned statement of reasons.
- 9 That said tabulation shall be referred to a committee of ultimate authority composed of the 10 judges of the Supreme Judicial Court to be known as the Supreme Court of Judicial Conduct 11 based on a basis of one judge vote, who shall in turn issue a statement of reasons as to why any 12 given judge who the attitude survey reveals has complied 150 negative responses herein defined 13 as an expression that the judge ought not to retain his office, has in fact been retained.
- 14 That the survey shall take place on the first of May every year and embrace each judge who has 15 held office for six months.
- 16 That the entire procedure shall be complete by the first Tuesday after the first Monday in 17 November of every year embodied in a report signed by each justice of the Supreme Court of 18 Judicial Conduct.

19 SECTION 2. That this act also encompasses a judicial attitude survey wherein such person who 20 has appeared in a courtroom where judicial proceedings have transpired may register his or her 21 opinion based on the canons of judicial ethics is to merit attainment of the specific presiding
22 judge that such opinion be reflected on the following scale: (1) outstanding; (2) very good; (3) 23 good; (4) fair; (5) see statement attached.

24 Any judge who receives a plurality of 50 or more designations of outstanding for two 25 consecutive years shall receive additional compensation of $7,500 per year for each year of such 26 designation retroactive to the first year of such designation.

27 SECTION 3. That any justice who has compiled 150 negative responses which is in fact affirmed
28 by the Supreme Court of Judicial Conduct may retain the title and compensation of hitherto held 29 provided that said justice assume and discharge administrative matters under the aegis of the 30 Chief Administrative Justice of both the Superior and District Courts who, at their discretion at 31 the expiration of two years by majority vote, reassign said justice to courtroom activity or at any 32 time for substantial cause discharge said justice from the judicial system in the entirety provided
33 said discharge is affirmed by both the Supreme Court of Judicial Conduct and Executive Council 34 who shall act within ninety days of notice of discharge. Failure to act within the specified time of 35 either body shall be construed as affirmance in such a manner that any discharge becomes final 36 on the ninety-first day after the issuance of this notice of discharge by the Chief Administrative 37 Justice.

38 SECTION 4. All attorneys duly licensed by the Commonwealth and residing herein who have 39 appeared in a courtroom proceeding shall participate in such survey. Any activity on the part said
40 attorneys deemed frivolous or in bad faith by a majority of the Chief Administrative Justice,
41 Chief Justice of the Superior Court or District Court may be grounds for a disciplinary hearing 42 by the board of bar overseers.

43 SECTION 5. The administrative arraignment for the bill shall be attended by the Commission on 44 Judicial conduct who shall at all times be accountable to the Chief Administrative Justice of the 45 trial courts.
