20 addictive drug at birth;”

21 SECTION 5. No physician, medical intern, or hospital personnel engaged in the examination, 22 care or treatment of children, who are so required to report abuse pursuant to this section, shall 23 be held liable in any civil or criminal action by reason of such report. No physician, medical 24 intern, or hospital personnel making such report and sharing any other information which the 25 person reporting believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the injuries, shall be liable
26 in any civil or criminal action by reason of such report if it was made in good faith; provided, 27 however, that such person did not perpetrate or inflict said abuse or cause said neglect. Any 28 individual making such report who, in the determination of the department or the district attorney 29 may have perpetrated or inflicted said abuse or cause said neglect, may be liable in a civil or 30 criminal conviction.

31 SECTION 6. No employer of those persons required to report pursuant to this section shall 32 discharge, or in any manner discriminate or retaliate against, any person who in good faith makes

33 such a report, testifies or is about to testify in any proceeding involving child abuse or neglect.

34 Any such employer, who discharges, discriminates or retaliates against such a person shall be 35 liable to such person for treble damages, costs and attorney's fees.
